C. L. ROCKWELL, PROP'R.

Glen Falls, N.Y., June 24th 1894

My dear friend,

Your very gratifying & satisfactory [^] letter of the 18th, enclosing Miss A.G.^s "Introduction to the Alumnae." I return it being her own writing, I think should be kept in the College, where I will also send the original of Mrs Letitia Tyler Semple's tribute. I learned in Europe, the value put on all original script, which is so at "Pilgrim Hall" in Plymouth Mass. I am rejoiced you have been so fortunate in securing so desirable a "Lady in charge" for the Dormitory, which must be a great relief to you in all ways, & then endorsed as Miss Alice Bowman is, by such competent judges as Mrs D^r R, & Mrs Col J, I feel you have nothing to fear, if Miss A.B.^s Aunt was the wife of Mr Wilson Mathews, who was the Uncle of Mr L. M. Finley, I know who she is, as I knew Mrs Wilson Mathews. I knew Carson would come forth just as he has,— if Parents have not the right to be proud of their children, who has?— With many thanks to you, Mr C, & I received all the papers, & Catalogues, you so kindly sent. My last to you was the same date, ^x18th, of your last to me, & as soon as it was mailed was taken ill, with nervous prostration from neuralgia; for three weeks, to use the D^r's words "You have had constant suffering with prostrations." To-day I begin to feel like myself, & strength is return'g. I have just received a very long letter from Col J, who is enraptured with all, with everything, & the interest, of Mr Morris, Mr Eustis, & Mr Walmsley, in assisting you. Will you please send me a half-dozen of the Sophie N. catalogues. Our weather has been very warm; but we have now a grateful change, in cool refreshing rains. Mr C, sends regards to the ladies, yrself, & C, & W, with my love from truly and sincerely

Jo. L Newcomb.

^x a mistake
