C. L. ROCKWELL, PROP'R.

Glen Falls, N.Y., Sept^r 3^d 1894.

My dear friend,

I am glad to know from your letter of Aug^{'st} 27th, you understand the chancel window is an entire Memorial to Sophie. I note your reason for suggesting the most desirable double window, as Memorials to my Mother and husband for which I truly thank you. It is Mr C's intention to leave for N.Y. to_morrow, when he will visit all parties, who have the best collection to make selections from. While you are having too much rain, we are suffering for the want of it. With the Dormitory, the Art build'g & now the Chapel, you certainly have accomplished more, than could have been expected, and ^{^am} not at all astonished, you are feeling the effects of your constant assiduous labors; do let me pray of you, to have a care (underlined twice) of yourself, as the strain on the mind, weakens physical strength, therefore do regard the rest (underlined twice) required for your desires.—When do

[you] think the Chapel will be ready for the windows? I would prefer them to be all placed at the same time; Sophie's has been commenced sometime, until the others are ready, all could be boarded up. I wrote Miss Gutierrez you would "reserve her a place in the Josephine Louise House,"— at which she is most happy. I am so glad the advertisement in the N.Y. Churchman pleased you, & your reward will be the crown of entire success.— I know how you all feel to part with dear Carson, so noble, & so good, but he will return. Mr C, sends kindest regards to all, & yourself, with my love & sincere prayers, from truly as ever—

Jo. L Newcomb.
