

H. SOPHIE NEWCOMB MEMORIAL COLLEGE,
PRESIDENT'S OFFICE.

New Orleans, January 28th 1897
1231 Washington Avenue.

Mr. H. K. Pomroy
D^r Sir,

I have your two letters of the 23^d & 25th, the former enclosing Mr Stetson's of the 22^d address^d to Mr F. W. Callender, after your interview with Mr S, all of which I will send to Mr C, who left on the 25th, with his servant for a trip thro' Florida and to Nassau. everyone said, they never saw him look better, a tele^m from him, from Jacksonville on the 26th he arrived safe.— As regards my will, whatever you or Mr S.^{son} thinks, I am willing shall stand, without your asking of Mr S. those "essential questions."— Mr C, suggested a will made here, with change of Executors: but I should warn you, as in this State Pres Dixon says you can have Ex^{rs} from other States.— I enclose a copy of a letter I have written to Mr Solon Humphreys "strictly private," he may show it or speak of it to you.— Thank you for your kind words, "if I can do anything for you & c I shall be glad to do so." The only relief from all will be, when I am laid in Greenwood, we are wintry weather & chilling blasts. very truly
Jo. L Newcomb.
