Mr H. K. Pomroy,

Dr Sir, On your last visit if you remember, you made the remark to me "if we only knew Mr C. had said he was willing &c." C.W.T. told me, in taking a walk one day with Mr C, at Lakewood, he seemed vexed at the idea of being tho't my private Secre'ty, & said, "Mrs N, can have her money whenever she wants it,— it is too much work to take care of it;" _& also told C.W.T. I was "changed" & "very peculiar", when C.W.T. came to bid Mr F.W.C, goodbye, he said to C.W.T. —"go at your convenience to see Mrs N,"— "don't stay too long she tires easily"—; "and don't talk business."— When you asked me "why don't you write Mr C? I enclose extracts from my last letter to him. I have had a very kind letter from Mr. F.L.S. which I ans'd at once, & have his & my copy to show you; would it be convenient for you to call this afternoon at your usual hour?.

Very truly.

Jo L Newcomb.
