My dear friend,

Your very welcome letter of the 14th, was indeed a comfort to us all, that your dear hus'<sup>d</sup> (tho' weak) was improving, & darling Willie is "gaining ground & no fever;" his youth, & will, & courage with loving care & devotion, under His gracious benediction, I think will surely & fully restore him, & feel he will not break his promise to me. I know it is very hard to leave your dear Ma, & many relatives & friends but the feeling dear friend, that you are doing all you can for your loved ones, & with our united prayers may you be daily comforted, relieved, & rewarded by seeing their strength & health returning. Miss B, is receiving applications for students. Mrs. Chamberlain's daughter enters Oct 1st, & Mrs Roger Smith's, the niece of Mrs Ten Broeck, She is from Lou<sup>ll</sup> K'y. although I bro't 12 Catalogues with me, & Miss B, nearly as many, she has none & I have only four, everyone is charmed with the buildings, & the "College Home" as Mrs Milliken calls the J.L.H—. Miss B. has promised her Aunts to visit them & leaves us Sept 6th & for N.O. on the 15th. Our dear mutual friend Mrs Dr R_ wants to be with me before she goes to Washington, for some relief, like me she is constantly appealed to; I read all & consign all to the waste basket; Miss B, says with love — she will write you — soon & Mr C, sends warm regards to yourself, Dr D, & Willie with my love from lovingly
