Dear friend, I have your paper of Feb^y 7th with the marked article & do thank you, & also ask you, if not too much trouble, to send me all you write. I gave the piece to Pres Dixon of Newcomb College, & he said "it was well handled and ably written." I fear from the daily reports of your weather, it is very severe, while we are enjoying open windows & balmy sunshine, do wish you were both here. Mr C. is well & sends greetings to yourself & dear hus^d, with my love, from as ever yours,
