

[Written vertically along the side of postal card] New York April 11th 1888.

My dear Col,¹

This card will introduce to you, my dear Pastor, who is visiting your city and a friend of Bishop Galleher. I am most anxious he should know you, and the noble work you are doing, therefore any attentions, you can extend to the D^r from your many cares & duties, — I feel he will fully appreciate, and will be gratefully remembered,— by

Very sincerely

Jo. L Newcomb
