

New York Nov<sup>r</sup> 3<sup>d</sup>/90.

Dear Frd

The package came safe a few days since & should have written of their receipt by return mail. had I not had another attack of my nervous debility, which still continues. I wrote you on the 18, and a postal on the 23,<sup>d</sup> but have heard nothing from you. The latter was to tell you I had given a letter of introduction to you, to my esteemed friend Mr Albert Doublé, who did not leave when he tho't he would, he now expects to leave on the 5th & as he will stop in other cities, may not be with you for sometime. I think you met him in my room. with much to Mrs J, & kindest regards to yourself, as ever truly

Jo. L Newcomb.

Editor's note:

Dear Frd is Colonel Johnston.
