Mr. H.K. Pomroy

Dear Sir

Your letter of the 10th by to_days mail, I have carefully & closely read. I too, have not yet found my envelope, but do hope it may come to hand. Your enclosed check for your salary, is all right. I do hope in your second search, you will be successful for us both, as I cant but think, mine cannot be lost.—As regards Mr W<sup>m</sup> H. P<sup>y</sup>. I am astonished. When he said to me, on my asking him, “if he would take his Father’s ^place & be my Ex,<sup>r</sup>” he answered, “ I can never fill my Father’s place, but will do the best I can for your interest & safety; but must charge you $4800, a year;” never mentioned $500 for office expenses; as my checks to him, called for the same amount quarterly, they do to you, how did he pay himself the $500? When he said to me, on taking my affairs, —and becoming my Ex,<sup>r</sup> that he “could not do it for the same I paid his Father,”—I answered “I wish Mr Willie for you to be satisfied, for what you do for me.”—The office was never mentioned. I wait to see you to understand about the office. A letter from my cousin Mr J.S.G. of June 1st, asking for the “State Tax receipt of 1892,”— for $60<sup>00</sup> was missing, when he handed all the papers on the Pilsbury property, over to the Tulane Board. ^& <sup>writes</sup> As I sent it to you, will you please look it up. I do hope all missing papers will be found, it being the first time such a thing has occurred, to you ore me. very truly Jo. L Newcomb.
