P.O. Box 188.

My dear friend,

Altho' I wrote you at length by last eve's ^{mail} enclosing my check payable to you for $4000, the mail has just bro't me Mrs Chamberlaine's letter, & the report of her visit to Mr Mallory, with the Churchman of Aug^{'st} 27th, which I also send you by this mail. Mrs Twing who was the guest of our mutual friend, Mrs Dr T. G. R.— and on whom your dear wife & yourself called, is an intimate friend of Mrs John Chamberlaine. I hope the pleasure it gives me to write you is not intruding upon your “managing to keep busy.” As the mail soon closes, can only send Mr C^{'s} regards to all (underlined five times) & yrself, with my love ditto—

from very sincerely

Jo. L Newcomb.
