Vermont August 13th 1898.

Your sweet aff<sup>ate</sup> letter as always, of the 10th I received in due mail, and this morn the package of Home Journals, for which please receive my very sincere thanks.
While I am pained to hear of your illness and Mrs R's — I am indeed glad your dear hus<sup>d</sup> keeps well, how sad about your nephew, but thank God he is at home with his loved ones. Our dear friend Mrs Dr R. arrived yest<sup>y</sup> & is in love with all she sees, & Mr C, will keep her on the go in driving & walking, she will be glad to meet you in N.Y. with Mr C's greetings to you both my love from

as ever Jo.L N—

Addressed to:
