My dear friend,

I fully intended ere this to write you, but time has flown so, of which we take no note except its loss; we left New York for Maplewood Hotel, where we stayed two days and a half, as Mr C, was deceived in the rooms. & came to this place, where we are most delightfully & comfortably fixed, & shall stay until Sept 1st. There are some charming people in the house, many from Boston. I received to day the N.Y. Home Journal, & thought at first it was from you, but it was from my other friend Mrs Hibert. This is a lovely place, the scenery, mountains & valleys, & surrounding country with rich farms, all under cultivation & improvement. _ How your dear hus<sup>d</sup> & you would enjoy it. Miss B_ & Mr C. send you both warm greetings, with my love, & God's blessings for you both (underlined twice) from as ever

Jo. I Newcomb.
