

[Written vertically along left margin of postal card] 587 W 145th St —N.Y. October 1st 1900.

My dear friend, after this week I do hope to be able to see you. We returned the last of Sept,^r & the summer has been a very severe one to me, the continued heat completely prostrating me, with entire loss of appetite, but Mrs C's devoted care, will restore all if it is God's will. I received your loving aff^{ate} letter of July 24th but like many others from dear friends I truly was not able to reply with grateful thanks. I do hope you & your dear hus'^d have kept quite well. Mr C, with this family & I send regards & love to you both from

as ever Jo. L N—

Postal Card addressed to:
Mrs. R. F. Putman
541 Third Street
Brooklyn,
New York