1900.

Dear friend,

Your card received with many thanks also your blotter. I too, have not been able <sup>to write</sup> being so much of an invalid since you were here, the blotter with calendar was lovely so uncommon. I was so sick from nervous debility and constant nausea, Mrs C, sent for her Dr, but am still so miserable, am getting discouraged, but it is all God's will & faith & hope must sustain & support me therefore must ask you to excuse my postal also, if I was not such a distance from you, Mr C, would take me over to lunch with you when able Mr C. sends the season greetings to you & dear Mr P with mine & love from

as ever Jo L N
