Glens Falls, N.Y., Nov^r 19th 1894

Col W^m P. Johnston,
D^r Col

I have your two letters of the 7th & 15th the latter by this morn'^gs mail, enclosing Miss B's which I return in this with many thanks. Miss B, writes well, and I endorse all she says of your dear wife and Mrs D^r R'^{son}. I am glad you have elected all of your men (Dem) as you write in "spite of the sugar holding renegades." — I am more than gratified you are so satisfied, with every thing at the 'Sophie Newcomb, and your son-in-law is re-elected. Miss Rossner's illness distressed me indeed, as her loss would have been a very serious one to D^r Dixon who must have felt very anxious for Miss R. — I am so happy to hear of dear Carries improvement, & that you are so much better as you write in your last, that I do hope may be interst Mr C, returned on the 14th much improved by his trip to Bermuda in everyway, which he fully enjoyed, & charmed with all he saw. We have had one snow storm which lasted a few days: of the weather for this season of the year, (blue Nov^r) we cannot complain, as some days of the month, have been very fine. If it pleases God we expect to, leave here on Saturday 24th for New York, where we shall not remain any longer than is necessary; this is my fifth letter and another one to write, before darkness overtakes me as the days are so very short. Mr C, desires warm greetings to Mrs J^a, with my love, and yrself from very sincerely Jo. L Newcomb.
